

John Christopher of Rehoboth, MA brought his four-year old Greyhound Nikki to the Center after she had surgery for a hematoma on her spine. Though she was basically unable to move around on her own following the surgery, after several months of treatment Nikki is now able to run, jump and play with John once again.

You can hear Nikki's story from John first-hand, in the video posted on our homepage .

---